"Thank you for the beautiful photos. I keep looking through them and thinking, "Wow" or "Ooooooh" or "That's a great shot of Mr. ..." Your images are wonderfully creative. I am amazed at what you were able to do with this kind of event."
Barb, Stanford University

"Mike Nakamura is a top notch event photographer, both talented and professional. His years of experience allow him to know exactly the shots your need with very little direction, especially for fundraising events. Mike is an expert in his field, the photos are excellent – he's a true pro in the industry. If you can get him – book him!"
Meredith, Tolo Events

"We have hired Mike on multiple occasions to work for the Obama for America campaign. Mike is extremely reliable and always produces top quality photography no matter the circumstances. He's been extremely professional in high security situations and regarding confidentiality. I enthusiastically recommend his work!"
Autumn, Obama for America

"Mike has been a great, longtime partner to Microsoft Stores, photographing over 70 events, including 54 store openings. He is the ultimate professional – photographing real moments of customers engaging with our products and our staff. He's everywhere when he's onsite at our events – he doesn't miss a moment! His photos truly capture the energy and engagement that occurs in our stores."

"Mike ran a headshot booth at our Worldwide Sales Kickoff meeting with over 300 people coming through in only a few of days. We were trying to help our sales team improve their LinkedIn profiles and Mike new exactly what we were trying to capture. Even through we were in a hotel lobby with a very limited schedule, Mike spent time with each person giving them individual attention and ensuring they left with something they would be proud of. He is so easy to work with, professional, flexible, communicates well and truly has an eye for capturing incredible images. I would highly recommend his services!"
